

Ref. No: GOUN/6-7/16/234

Date: 24rd September, 2020

Notice for Postponing Final Sem/Year Online Examinations w.e.f. 25/09/2020

This is for the information to all concerned that based on various representations received from students on conduct of online examinations for final semester / year w.e.f. 25/09/2020, the Authorities have considered the representations and decided to postpone the online examinations as of now.

Thus, the final semester / year examination schedule as uploaded on the University Website stands cancelled and withdrawn.

The new examination schedule, procedures pertaining to the online examinations will be uploaded on the University Website in due course of time. Students are requested to visit – www.tgounagaland.com and keep on tracking the “NOTICE” Section from time to time for getting the latest updates.

The link provided for mock testing with login id and password sent through e-mail as mentioned on the examination forms received, remains the same for the students to practice and get the feel of how the examination is to be attempted.

The Online Examinations will now commence from 5th October, 2020.

The actual examination link, login id and password for real time online examination will be communicated to each and every student through e-mail as mentioned on the examination form by the students on Thursday, the 1st October, 2020.

Sushil Singh
Controller of Examinations